

Sandwell Academy SIXTH FORM

Sixth Form Bridging Work

At Sandwell Academy we believe it is vital for our students to prepare as much as possible for their Sixth Form courses. Background reading and becoming familiar with specifications are very useful before starting courses in September.

For this reason, departments have put together transition work for prospective students. The work varies from department to department and may include specifications, tasks, resources and links for students in advance of their first lesson in September.

Scan the QR code or follow the link below to access the materials

<https://tinyurl.com/sixthform-transition>